Lady Jacket Profile:

Kim McCoy provides experience in two sports

Cedarville College senior forward Kim McCoy is one of five seniors on the Lady Jacket basketball team. She has provided experience and has added depth to not only the hoop squad, but the softball team as well.

McCoy is a two-year letterwinner in basketball and has played in all 13 games this season. She has totalled 38 points with 42 rebounds, plus she has made all six of her free throws to date.

"Kim has seen a lot of court time on the front line thus far," says Lady Jacket head coach Kathy Freese. "She is comfortable there and mobile in the post. She continues to improve as much as anyone on the team."

McCoy has scored six points in three separate games this year. Her finest overall outing came in Cedarville's last home game, a 101-53 rout of Lake Erie on December 15. She pulled down nine rebounds, handed out four assists, and scored four points.

McCoy received valuable experience last summer when she travelled with Athletes in Action to Ecuador and Chile. She is also a two-year letterwinner in softball where she sports a career .300 batting average.

Kim is a physical education major at Cedarville. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin McCoy of Carroll, Ohio.

ON A ROLL -- Since opening the season with back-to-back losses, Cedarville has run off 11 consecutive victories. The Lady Jackets opened Mid-Ohio Conference play on Tuesday night with an 84-70 win at Mt. Vernon Nazarene. Amy Zehr had 23 points for the winners, while Mindy Humble added 18 and Melissa Hartman 16. The 11 straight wins is the best in school history by either the men or the women. The men's record is ten in a row set 28 years ago, and the Lady Jackets already eclipsed the old women's mark of nine straight set 24 seasons back.

TODAY'S OPPONENT -- Ohio Dominican College is located in Columbus with an enrollment of 1,510 students. ODC is also a member of the Mid-Ohio Conference and NAIA District 22 Division II. The Panthers were 16-12 last year and qualified for the district playoffs.

Cedarville holds a 14-10 lead in the series between the two schools. However, Ohio Dominican won both games last year -- 85-75 in the Athletic Center, and 75-67 in Columbus.

ODC enters today's game with a 3-11 record and this is their MOC opener.

NEXT GAME -- The Lady Jackets will host Urbana University on Saturday in another Mid-Ohio Conference game. Tip-off is scheduled for 2:00 p.m.

Following that contest, Cedarville hits the road for their next five beginning on Tuesday at defending MOC champ Shawnee State. The women won't play in the A.C. again until January 28 against Rio Grande.
